It will surely be worthwhile experience on the sea. Moreover, both of you can enjoy the fresh delicious seafood right on the windy deck while the boat is floating passing through many limestone mountains and caves. Let the natural wonder of the world bring you and your partner a wonderful honeymoon than ever!

To make your honeymoon tour in Halong bay more memorable, you are advised to take part in a lot of interesting outdoor activities, such as kayaking and dining under the stars with candle light on the white sand beach of romantic Titop Island!

Sapa

The misty Sapa is another ideal for foreign newly-married couples. Dubbed as a little Paris of the West North of Vietnam, Sapa surely brings romantic time when both of you – hands in hands - walk along the hilly windy road to the old stone church in the coldness and then stop at a little local bar for some warm Tao Meo alcohol.

If you need quietness and privacy with the best room service, 4 or 5 star hotels are good recommendations. Or else, you can choose other hotels in this town which are not more expensive but deliver good service.

Some recommended attractions in Sapa for you are the mansions built in French colonization time, the Bac waterfall at the height of 100m and the Cat Cat ethnic village of local Hmong.

Also, you should not miss joining weekend love market or climbing up the Sky Gate or Cloud Yard to take photos.
